

JAMES P. BATCHELOR NAMED FELLOW OF AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS

For Immediate Release
Contact: Keri Drake, CPSM
drake@arrowstreet.com
617.623.5555

James P Batchelor, FAIA

Somerville, MA: 15 February 2006

Arrowstreet congratulates James P. Batchelor on his elevation to Fellow of the American Institute of Architects. Mr. Batchelor, 55, is President and CEO of Arrowstreet, a Somerville, Massachusetts design firm of 120 professionals providing architecture, planning, graphic and interior design services to clients in the public and private sectors worldwide. His notable recent projects include the first US Green Building Council LEED-Platinum certified building in the city of Boston, the award-winning Artists for Humanity EpiCenter, and a new township near Amritsar in northwestern India.

A graduate of Williams College, Mr. Batchelor hold Masters degrees in both Planning and Architecture from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he has taught at the Center for Real Estate. A past Loeb Fellow at Harvard, he serves on the Advisory Board of the Harvard Graduate School of Design's Executive Education Program. He is a member of the American Institute of Architects CEO Large Firm Roundtable and a former Commissioner of Professional Practice for the Boston Society of Architects.

Arrowstreet is a multidisciplinary design firm based in Somerville, MA.

###